

27th IES Continuing Education Study Day

Friday, 11th June 2021

PROGRAMME

TIME

10.40 – 10.50

WELCOME TO THE IRISH ENDOCRINE STUDY DAY

Professor Brendan Kinsley, President of the Irish Endocrine Society

SESSION 1:

Chair: Professor Brendan Kinsley, President of the Irish Endocrine Society

10.50 – 11.35

Epidemiology of COVID-19 and diabetes

Professor Helen Colhoun

Institute of Genetics and Molecular Medicine

University of Edinburgh

11.35– 12.40

COVID-19 and Endocrine disorders

Adrenal - Dr Agnieszka Pazderska, Consultant Endocrinologist, St. James's Hospital

Thyroid – Dr Anne McGowan, Consultant Endocrinologist, Robert Graves Institute, Tallaght University Hospital

Reproductive – Dr Lisa Owens, Consultant Endocrinologist, St. James's Hospital

12.40 – 13.30

Coffee break with industry updates

SESSION 2:

Chair: Professor James Gibney, Honorary Secretary/ Treasurer, Irish Endocrine Society.

13.30 – 14.10

Why is COVID-19 more severe in diabetes and obesity?

Professor Carel le Roux

Professor of Experimental Pathology

University College Dublin

14.10 – 14:40

Diabetes and COVID-19 – the Paediatric experience

Dr Orla Neylon

Consultant Paediatric Endocrinologist

Department of Paediatrics, University Hospital Limerick

- 14.40 – 15:30 Coffee break with industry updates
- 15.30 – 16:15 Management of hyperglycaemia in hospitalised patients with COVID-19
Professor Ketan Dhatariya
Consultant Diabetes & Endocrinology / Honorary Professor
Norwich Medical School, University of East Anglia
- 16.15 – 16:55 Diabetes and COVID-19
Professor Daniel J Drucker
Senior Scientist, Lunenfeld-Tanenbaum Research Institute
Professor of Medicine, University of Toronto
- 16:55– 17.00 Summary and Close
Prof Brendan Kinsley, President, Irish Endocrine Society